Mixed Pickles 6 Group show

Cologne

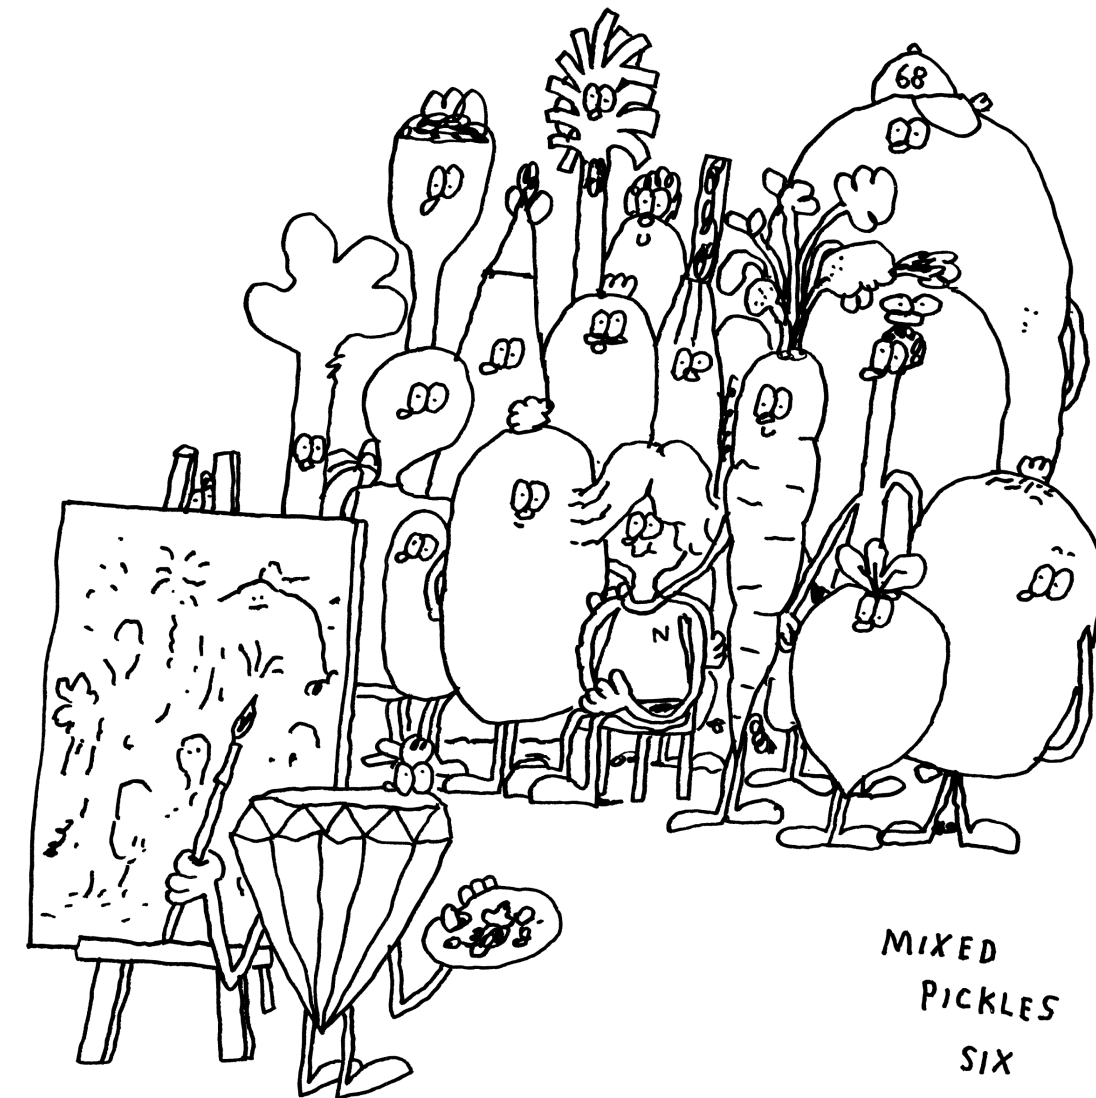

2019/12/15

2020/01/12

For the end of the year, Ruttkowski;68 is serving MIXED PICKLES 6. From painting to sculpture to installation and video art – this interdisciplinary show at the Michael Horbach Foundation will juxtapose differing artistic positions. As well as providing an overview of the gallery’s portfolio from its branches in Cologne and Paris – via pieces by Carlotta Bailly-Borg, Conny Maier, Erwin Wurm, Frédéric Platéus, Jårg Geismar, Kathryn Andrews, Lars Eidinger, Parra, Fabian Treiber, and many more – the works of over twenty artists will also reflect the diverse spectrum of contemporary art production. Instead of a hierarchical evaluation of the works by the artist or curator, Mixed Pickles will focus on how the works affect the viewer – both via the observation of a single artwork and in the interplay of positions among themselves.
