

Frenchy But Chic!

From a Brussels-based displaced Frenchy formerly living in Los Angeles, public musings about art and anything else that happens to strike my fancy.

ABOUT ME

Frenchy but Chic!

I am probably the least interesting person in the universe and needed a self-aggrandizing gesture to assert my own importance. Hence this blog.

Candor Exhibition At Long Beach City College Gallery

The Candor exhibition at the Long Beach City College Gallery closed yesterday. It was a homage to Mike Kelley, featuring former students of his. Please find a few images of the show below. I took them at night, so apologies for the yellowish tinge in all the picture. It was a really nice show, very tight and holding together beautifully.

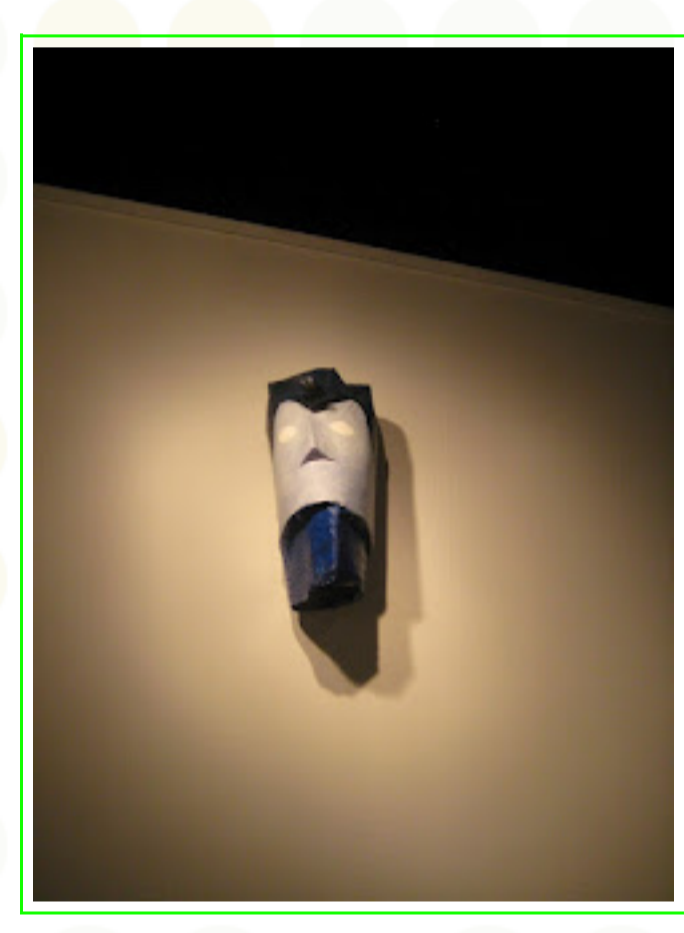

Lisa Ann Auerbach

Andy Alexander

Daniel Mendel-Black

Kurt Forman

Sharon Lockhart

Pam Strugar

I didn't get the exhibition's checklist so I cannot give you the titles nor the dimensions of the works. I know that most artists showed recent work, with the exception of Pam Strugar who decided to show a piece she made for her final MFA show at Art Center when she was Mike's student. The exhibition is over but there are talks about maybe doing a web catalog in the future.
